Further information	The Scottish Open is the third oldest event in badminton world history and will be held at the Glasgow International Arena. A Visiting Line Judges' Meeting may be held on Wednesday 18 November in the Arena. Time and place to be confirmed, but not before 1500 hours to enable travel arrangements. A Badminton Scotland Court Officials tee shirt and fleece will be provided. Line Judges should supply their own black trousers/skirt, black socks/tights and black, low heeled shoes. No advertising should be visible on any of these items. Uniforms must be worn when on duty. The finals will be held on Sunday 22 November and should be completed by 1730hrs to allow officials the opportunity to catch a return flight on the Sunday evening. All line judges are expected to be available until the last final is completed, excepting prior agreement for an earlier departure time. It takes approximately 30 minutes to travel from the venue to Glasgow Airport, so please factor this in to your travel arrangements. If you can't find return travel on Sunday evening we will provide accommodation for you on Sunday 22 November.
